

YOUNG CULPRITS NOW IN DUNGEON

Gregory, Pitt and Rivenback Captured in Norfolk—Brought Back to Petersburg.

TO BE WELL REPRESENTED

Petersburg Council Takes Steps to Have Creditable Exhibit at Jamestown.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., February 21.— Gregory, Pitt and Rivenback, the three prisoners, who broke jail about 1 o'clock Wednesday morning, and were captured in Norfolk this morning, are back in a dungeon in the Petersburg jail to-night, having reached here at 10:30 in charge of Chief of Police Ragland and City Sergeant John B. Evans. With the exception of Gregory, who seemed decidedly sore, the young men appeared rather pleased with the reception at the jail by a number of city officers and newspaper men. They had practically nothing to say.

After receiving information that the three escaped prisoners from the city jail had passed a water tank near DuPonts, on the Norfolk and Western Railroad, Chief of Police Ragland sent Sergeant Stevens and three officers down the road in pursuit of the fugitives, who were overtaken at Ivor Station, but escaped by jumping a passing freight train at the night. Captain Ragland had already been to Norfolk, where he gave the police authorities full information as to the men. Notice of their capture in that city was received this morning, and the chief, with City Sergeant John B.
Evans, left this afternoon to bring them back. How the prisoners oversaw the steel saws with which they removed the iron bar to their cell window is still a mystery, several probable solutions of which have been suggested. It is thought possible that two women who were allowed to talk to two of the men in the cell in the presence of a jail officer may have slipped the files in, an another suspicion is that a prisoner who recently surrendered himself at police headquarters as a deserter from the army, but was afterwards released on information that he was not wanted, was an accomplice of Gregory's or Suter's.

At Jamestown Fair.

Proper attention is now being paid to the important matter of Peters-burg's representation at the Jamestown Exposition, which is in the hands of a committee of two members of the Board of Aldermen and three Councilmen—Robert Gilliam, Jr., chairman; Carter K. Bishop, William Koenig, C.
W. Bland and A. D. Hamilton, who were recently appointed by the president of the City Council, according to a resolution. Chairman Gilliam went to Richmond yesterday for a conference with Captain G. Julian Pratt, superintendent of the Virginia exhibition, as to the securing of floor space, and will report results to his committee at a meeting to-morrow. No details of the Petersburg exhibition have been decided upon, but it is especially desired that the city shall be distinctively represented, not only commercially and industrially, but historically as well.

Daughters Entertain.

Petersburg Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will give a lunch and supper at A. H. Hill camp hall to-morrow afternoon and evening for the benefit of the chapter's fund for the Daughters of the Confederacy building at Jamestown. The ladies are making elaborate preparations for the entertainment, and a liberal patronage is expected.

Boy Shot in Face.

Paul Denning, the thirteen-year-old son of a merchant of Dendron, in Surry county, was accidentally shot in the face by a boy companion at that place Tuesday evening, and is now in a Richmond hospital, reported as seriously wounded. The boys had just returned from the drill of a juvenile military company, to which they belonged, and Denning's friend had entered a store, leaving him outside the door. While in the store he pulled the trigger of a shotgun that he was carrying, thinking that it was not loaded, and the charge of shot, passing through the store, tore away a portion of his friend's face. The wounded boy was taken to Richmond on a special train.

DIES SUDDENLY.

Aged Lady, in Usual Health, Succumbs to Heart Disease.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., February 21.—Mrs.
Gertrude Sharpe, wife of Thomas R.
Sharpe, a retired railroad man, and the builder of the Danville and Western Railroad, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at her country home, Edgewood, N. C. She had been in her usual health when suddenly attacked with heart disease. Mrs. Sharpe was nearly two years of age, and was widely known. She is survived by her husband and the following children: Lucy Ashby Sharpe, of Spray; George and Thomas R. Jr., of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Bird Meyer, of Buffalo, N. Y.

BANK DIRECTORS.

Stockholders of Cumberland Bank Meet.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CUMBERLAND, VA., February 21.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Cumberland Bank, held on yesterday, the following directors were elected: C. R. Sanderson, Dr. Carter and W. C.
Pettus, P. B. Grier, Donald McRae, Judge Wm. M. Smith, J. J. Robertson, B.

Shepherd, E. R. Davis.

The report of the directors shows the bank to be in a prosperous condition, and that the business of the bank is steadily increasing. The directors elected Alan McRae, president; Dr. Carter, Vice-president, and Donald McRae, cashier.
Henry Sadler, colored, who is charged with forgery, was given a preliminary hearing before Justice J. T. Porter on yesterday, and his case sent on to the grand jury. Eliza Woodson, Sadler's sister-in-law, had given a lien to Wilkinson & Co., of Trenton Mills, on her horse for certain advances made to her, and it is charged that Sadler obtained an assignment of the writing she had given Wilkinson & Co. by falsification. The prosecution is brought under the section of the Code of Virginia which makes the obtaining of the signature of any person to a writing the false making of which would be forgery a felony. It is said by lawyers that prosecutions under this section are very rare.

FATAL QUILTING PARTY.

Bad Blood Between Negroes Resulted in One's Death.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., February 21.—George Motley shot and instantly killed George Hall at a negro quilting party in the county near Fall Creek, last night. A large crowd of negroes were at the dancing at the time of the killing. Motley and Hall had been on bad terms as the result of a quarrel over a woman. The former was apparently merely carelessly handling a pistol, when he pointed it at Hall, firing point-blank, the bullet piercing his heart. Motley fled after the killing, and has not been captured. Both are young negroes.

SEVERE EXPERIENCE.

Boys Locked in Box-Car Make Trip Without Food.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., February 21.—From Philadelphia to Norfolk locked in a boxcar, almost freezing and without food, is a trip made by Wm. C. Crow, from fifteen to seventeen years old, if the story they tell is true.
They claim they went to sleep in the car in Philadelphia, and that the door of the car was locked without their knowledge. The boys suffered much from cold and hunger on the trip.
They broke open packages of freight in an effort to get something with which to force their way out of the car, for they were arrested on the charge of destroying the property of the railroad, and Justice E. P. Rodman sentenced them to fifteen days each in the Norfolk county jail. They did not succeed in making their presence in the car until the car was almost here.

LITIGATION OVER IT.

Serves Notice of Suit Regarding Rivermont on Mayor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., February 21.— Notice was served on Mayor Smith today by attorneys representing the River-mont Realty Company, that proceedings will be instituted in the clerk's office of the Circuit Court of Campbell county on March 15th for the purpose of having the court pass upon the rights of the city and the company in the streets of River-mont.
The company, which some time since succeeded the Rivermont Company in its rights in Rivermont, claims certain rights in the streets of that section of the city, and the residents of the old company, and there has been a dispute as to these rights for some time with the city; hence this suit.
The Rivermont Realty Company will be represented by Mr. A. Caperton Braxton, of the Richmond firm of Braxton, Engelston & Williams; Caskey & Coleman will be represented, of course, by Mr. N. C. Manson, Jr., who however, has the City Council for associate counsel.

TAKE PRISONER TO DANVILLE

Judge Aiken Sustains Motion for Change of Venue in Amherst Case.

NO TRUE BILL AGAINST HUDSON

One of the Negroes Released and Promptly Secures Employment.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) AMHERST, VA., February 21.—The soldier boys left Amherst about noon.
This time Herbert Steptoe alone marched in the center of their column.
Peter Hudson had been released. This morning the grand jury returned the indictment not a true bill against him.
He at once secured employment here.
He was very happy when released.
He has expressed himself as of the opinion that he would be released, and would not employ a counsel to defend him until after the grand jury had acted. Steptoe will be taken to Danville and placed in jail to await the first Monday in March, when he will be tried. Judge Aiken's motion sustained the motion of the prisoner for a change of venue. Both Commonwealth's Attorney Evans and Sheriff Beard stated that they had never had any apprehension of violence being done by the prisoner.

Why He Called for Militia.

Mr. Hurst stated that he had called for the militia on account of a letter which he had from the Adjutant-General on the subject. Judge Aiken said that since he had been in Amherst he had seen no reason whatever why the prisoner could not have a fair trial here, and saw nothing which caused him to think that there would be violence, but that the law made it mandatory on him to grant a change of venue whenever one petitioned for called out to protect the prisoner.
By consent, the case was transferred to Danville, which is Judge Aiken's court.

The soldiers made many friends while here. Their expected appearance was a subject of much comment. Despite the fact that there was no real apprehension here of mob violence, a squad of sixteen men was kept on guard at the jail last night, and four men constantly patrolled the jail. They regarded it as their duty, as they were sent here to guard the prisoner.

"Will Be Hanged" Anyway.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., February 21.—Herbert Steptoe was brought to Danville this afternoon from Amherst. Steptoe house, in custody of Sheriff Beard.
The trip was uneventful of anything sensational. Few people here knew of the arrival of the negro, and there was no demonstration at the station.
He was carried to jail by a side street, and no trouble is expected. Steptoe protests that he is innocent of the crime with which he is charged, but expressed the belief that he was going to be hanged. Judge A. M. Aiken, of the Corporation Court, who was designated by Governor Swanson to preside at the trial, returned to the city this afternoon.

ONE HOUR IN JAIL.

Richard Haymore Gets This Sentence, With Fine of $25.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHATHAM, VA., February 21.—The regular term of Pittsylvania county circuit reopened Monday, and the first case called Richard Haymore for malicious shooting. Haymore was attending a dance several weeks ago when he became involved in a quarrel with two Yates brothers, resulting in one of them being shot. Several witnesses were examined, and the jury, after hearing out a short while, returned a verdict of one hour in jail and a fine of $25. On two other counts Haymore was fined in each $15 and the cost.

The case of Asa Viciello against the Southern Railway Company for $400 damages, alleged to have been sustained by his team being frightened and made to runaway, came next. Verdict for the defendant.

John Jones, colored; Homer Davis and C. F. McNeely, white, for holding United States retail liquor-dealers license, was before Mayor Hargrave this week and fined each $20 and cost. All noted appeared to the trial.

A certified list from the Internal Revenue Department containing the names of all those holding United States retail liquor-dealers license in Pittsylvania county was filed in the clerk's office of the court, but no indictment was made. The number holding such license in this county other than distillers are nearly fifty.

RESIDENCE BURNS.

Mr. Hurst's Home Wiped Out.
No Clue to Robbers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) TAGUEVILLE, VA., February 21.—The fine residence of John B. Hurst, the leading merchant at Poundling Mill, was entirely destroyed by fire this afternoon. The building and furniture was partially covered by insurance.
There is no clue as yet to the robbers who robbed the store and postoffice at Maxwell a few nights since.
It now develops that $7,500 worth of goods, including furs, $200 in cash, taken from the store and post-office.
The post-office inspectors are working on the case.

ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Otey Entertain Their Friends

MONTVALE, February 21.—The entertainment given on Friday the 16th, at "Valley View," the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Otey, may be recorded as the most pleasant social event of the week. A number of young people from Montvale were present.
Mrs. Bernard Early entertained the Shakespeare class at the last meeting. Delicious refreshments followed the intellectual feast, after which the propriety of enlarging the village library, making room for new books, making new rules and regulations, was considered. Hereafter meetings on Friday's will be library days, and those wishing to obtain books should call for them on those days only.

Mr. Allan Ferrell, of West Virginia, has been on a visit to his home folks at this place.
Mrs. H. Ferrell is making a visit to her mother, Mrs. Battle Rice, Mrs. Nannie Graham, of Graham's Forge, Wythe county, and Mr. R. G.
Hanson, of Bristol, Tenn., are the guests of Mrs. and Mrs. James Buford.
Mrs. A. J. Hall, of Bristol, is expected to arrive this afternoon, and will spend some time visiting relatives at Montvale.

SICK ARE IMPROVING.

Mrs. Eva Moss, Who Has Pneumonia, Is Much Better.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., February 21.—Mrs.
Eva Moss, wife of Mr. B. B. Moss, who has been very sick with pneumonia for the past several weeks, is very much better, and it is expected that she will soon be well.
Mrs. Moss has again resumed her work on the road. The doctors report most of their patients convalescing in this section, notwithstanding the severe changes in the weather. It is understood that the James & Payne contract is nearing completion.

About three inches of snow fell here during the day yesterday, but as it was preceded by a warm rain, a large portion melted, although the temperature has fallen very rapidly. The ground froze last night, and at this writing the atmosphere indicates that there will be more snow before nightfall.

The lumber industry is being fully worked in this section at present, as there are five large sawmills in a few miles of this place, all of which work from twenty to thirty hands each, and the question of labor is one that confronts the lumbermen on every hand, and where they are successful in securing hands, they want prices equal to those paid by the lumbermen.

COOL ABOUT IT.

Policeman Lets Negro Complete Robbery, Then Nabs Him.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., February 21.—B.
Cousins, alias Charles Jackson, colored, was caught early this morning by Officer McGuire, of the local police department, robbing a grocery store at the corner of Park Avenue and Flores Street, placing the negro under arrest as he came out of the front door. It is believed by the police that Cousins has not been alone in the series of robberies and burglaries that have been worrying the department during the past two weeks, and efforts are being made to-day to locate some of the stolen plunder and arrest other members of the supposed gang.
Officer McGuire was on his beat, and he was passing the store when he noticed the negro at work. Instead of interrupting him, he "planted" the store he stationed himself on the outside and placed him under arrest as he came out. The negro has confessed the police, but he has implicated in a number of other robberies in the city during the present month. He has not indicated, however, that he is a confederate, but the police do not think he was operating alone.

BRAKEMAN HURT.

Slips Under Wheels of Engine.
Injuries Probably Fatal.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., February 21.—Dave Bradberry, a brakeman for the Southern Railway, was run over early yesterday morning by a Southern Railway engine near Paces and probably fatally injured.
He was in the act of boarding the engine when he slipped under the wheels.
He was brought to a hospital here, and his leg amputated above the knee. Other parts of his body were badly lacerated.

TOUCH OF ROMANCE.

Pretty Young Lady Leaves School.
Weds Rather Than Teach.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CREWES, VA., February 21.—There was a quiet, but pretty, marriage in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Woody last night, the contracting parties being Miss Marie Woody and Mr. Bernard Woody, both of Farmville. There was just enough romance about the wedding of this youthful couple to make it interesting. The pretty little bride, who has been a student in the Woman's School in Farmville, is two years, is just sixteen, and the groom

Poor Show for The Dyspeptic

Poisoned Stomach, Clogged Brain, W-

He Seizes His Opportunity.

There's no good reason for any man's remains in a hospital, and a burden to himself and family, when he should be a producer.
The only one reason why he has been a dyspeptic and that is because he has overworked his stomach so that it cannot secrete the juices and work the muscles necessary to digest the food.

First take an unobtrusive cathartic and get rid of this food.

Second, get a 50-cent package of Stuart's Dyspeptic Tablets from a druggist and take one at each meal and at bed time. The tablet will do the digesting and the rest will be done by its forces. Before the box is gone, your stomach will be vastly relieved if not cured. Stuart's Dyspeptic Tablets contain the very elements which your stomach possessed when it was healthy—pepsin, diastase, gallacids and others. It was because your stomach kept losing its supply of these digestive ferments that you became dyspeptic.

Stuart's Dyspeptic Tablets do the work simply, surely, and without injury. They are not a medicine, but the working out of a scientific principle which your food you eat.

Hundreds of sufferers in far worse condition than you are, are cured by these little tablets. Forty thousand physicians in the United States and abroad have testified to their efficacy.

If you are uncertain and wish further proof, send us your name and address, and we will send you a free trial package. We will give you a free trial package if you will give us your name and address.

Richmonders in New York.

NEW YORK, February 21.—The following Richmond people were registered to-day at New York hotels: W.
Belmont, Mrs. Lynch, Victoria, G. W.
Poe, Latham, B. S. Rolly and wife; Murray Hill, A. H. Christian, Jr.; Imperial, F. D. Meany; Herald Square,

A Whole Lifetime's Opportunity!

The slowness of the elevator people is holding us back from moving into our new seven-story building at Adams and Broad streets. The new lessees of our present building want to tear down our present quarters, and to appease them we have to allow them to have a part of our present buildings to work in now. We're between two fires and are forced to cut prices deeper and deeper—for instance:

A lot of all-iron frame Bed Springs, ranging in price from $2.50 to $6.00, will be sold at 50c. each.
Another lot of Cane and Wood-Seat Dining and Bedroom Chairs; you can get sets of 4 chairs and upwards; $1.00 and $1.50 Chairs, choice. 60c.

32 Kitchen Tables, 24x36 inches, 80c.
10 Kitchen Tables, 32x42 inches, 98c.
4 Kitchen Tables, 32x48 inches, $1.40.
7 fine Mahogany Finished Single Wardrobes, 2 feet 8 inches wide by 6 feet 10 inches high. Regular price is $15.00, now $4.07.

Another lot of 22 fine Mahogany Finished Double Wardrobes, roll top and roll front, an extremely neat pattern, regular $30.00 value, now $12.80.

Toilet Sets, Dinner Sets and Lamps go at your own prices, because in moving if we break a pitcher, stop jar or lamp globe we lose profit and costs alike. Lots are too small to mention here, but you'll be more than surprised when you see how ridiculously small prices are marked.

Odd pieces from above will sell from 3c up.

Now, one more thing and we're through: Don't expect to find these things here a week from to-day. We've marked them down to close them out IMMEDIATELY, at once, and you'll have to be quick.

PRINTING PLANT BURNS.

D. A. St. Clair's Business Wiped Out by Flames.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WYTHEVILLE, VA., February 21.—The printing establishment of Mr. D. A. St. Clair, on the corner of Church and Monroe Streets, was almost entirely destroyed by fire this morning about 8 o'clock. The fire caught from kerosene in the hands of a careless employee, and though the fire department responded promptly and soon had water on, the flames could not be subdued until the building was a total wreck. The presses and cases are considerably damaged by water. Mr. St.
Clair's loss is from $1,000 to $1,500, with no insurance.

NOT TO INTERFERE.

Mayor of Newport News Takes Same Ground as Mayor McCarthy

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., February 21.— Mayor Buxton has informed the negroes who protested against the presentation of "The Clansman" at the Academy of Music next week that he has no authority to interfere with the show. The petition presented to the Mayor was signed by all of the leading negroes of the community, who alleged that "The Clansman" is calculated to incite race hatred and to interfere with the peace and order existing between the races here at this time." The Mayor said that he had no right to interfere with any theatrical performance that was not so indecent as to corrupt public morals, or of a nature calculated to incite riot or disorder.

BIG RIGHT ON.

Lynchburgers Will Object to Trains Using Belt Line.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., February 21.— It is feared here officially that the Southern Railway will erect and maintain a station for its through passenger trains on the new line being constructed in the western portion of the city. If the City Council will permit it to do so, it is proposed to have one of the local passenger trains go through the present union station. The franchise desired by the company is pending now before a council committee, and a big fight is expected to develop against any of the trains of the system passing the city without entering the present union station.

Board of Directors Select Speakers for Opening Event.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
The board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. are making extensive preparation for the opening of the new $30,000 building on March 4th, 5th and 6th. The board marks the reopening of the association work in the city after suspension for two years. Among the out-of-town speakers who are expected to participate in the three-day program will be Governor Swanson, Dr. Charles W. Kent, of the University of Virginia; Rev. Frank T. McFadden, of Richmond; State Secretary L. A. Coulter, and International Secretaries E. M. Robinson, Cecil L.
Gates and H. O. Williams.
